

Top businesses use the success wheel

Take a moment to fill out yours, the results may surprise you!

You don't need to be 100% better than your competition, just 1% better in key areas.

Our Success Wheel system is a way of identifying areas of your business talents that require attention by following the instruction to rate your level of competence in the 7 key areas.

How to fill in your business wheel...

Our Success Wheel is a way of identifying areas of your business talents that require attention. The centre represents 0, the outside the highest competency rating of 10.

1. Rate yourself 0 – 10 in each of the segments
2. Now connect your scores in a circular shape; or as close to a circular shape as you can get it.

Things to consider
